

Mandelbaum House

within The University of Sydney

Professor Steven Katz

Alvin J. & Shirley Slater Chair, Jewish Holocaust Studies, Boston University and Former Director, Elie Wiesel Center for Jewish Studies

Mandelbaum Scholar in Residence 2017

Steven T. Katz received his Ph.D. from the University of Cambridge and now holds the Slater Chair in Jewish and Holocaust Studies at Boston University. He is the Academic Advisor to the 31 country International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA), and through that organization has been involved in negotiations with many governments regarding Holocaust education.

A prolific author, Katz has published numerous prize winning works and essays on the Holocaust, Jewish philosophy, and comparative mysticism. He is currently working on a comparison between the Holocaust and black slavery, to be published next year by Cambridge University Press.

Thursday 11 May, 7:30pm

The Holocaust and Comparative History

Sunday 21 May, 7:30pm

Jewish Resistance

Sunday 28 May, 7:30pm

Jewish Theological Responses to the Holocaust

Sunday 4 June, 7:30pm

Elie Wiesel: the Man and his Legacy

Where: At Mandelbaum House

No advance bookings needed.

Entry: $10 adults | $5 concession students - no charge

Information:

trust@mandelbaum.usyd.edu.au

Mandelbaum House is the Jewish residential college at the University of Sydney.

It is also a centre of Jewish education, bringing renowned international scholars to Australia.

learning.mandelbaum.usyd.edu.au